

Uncertainty components normalized by model output